THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinſon, Knt. Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. Vienna, March 23. The Pruſſian Officers, after having been admitted to kiſs her Imperial Majeſty's Hand, are ſet out for Preſbourg, where their Rendezvous is, and from whence they will be furniſhed with Waggons to the Frontiers of Sileſia. Several Hundreds of Pruſſian Priſoners, that had taken Service in the Imperial Troops, having the Choice given them of ſtaying, or returning Home, have preferred the Latter. General Finckinſtein is ſtill here.

Copenhagen, March 26. On the 17th Inſtant his Royal Highneſs Prince Frederick was examined in Preſence of the Privy Council, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, as to his Attainments in Religion and Literature, and gave great Satisfaction, though his Royal Highneſs is but in the Tenth Year of his Age.

Three Daniſh Officers, viz. Captains Becker, Baſballe, and Arff, who went as Volunteers into the French Service, and were taken Priſoners by the Engliſh in the late War, have been rewarded by his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty with the Order For Military Merit.

A few Days ago his Daniſh Majeſty made a numerous Promotion of Sea Officers among the lower Claſſes, and admitted 22 new Cadets upon that Eſtabliſhment. The Guardſhips are now brought out into the Road, and will ſoon repair to their reſpective Stations. Orders are likewiſe iſſued to fit out a ſupernumerary Frigate; but with no other Intent, than to exerciſe the Cadets in the Month of May.

This Capital continues ſickly; and the Diſtemper of the Horned Cattle is not hitherto abated.

Ratiſbon, March 26. The 17th of this Month, there appeared a Decree of the Aulick Council touching the Affair of Saxe Meiningen. In conſequence, a new Reſcript was addreſſed to the Dukes of Saxe Cobourg, Gotha, and Hildbourghauſen, notifying, that Madam the Dutcheſs Dowager of Saxe Meiningen has again repreſented to his Imperial Majeſty, the Violences committed by the Troops of the ſaid Princes againſt the Dutchy and City of Meiningen, the Subjects of which they had diſarmed and forced to pay Homage, cauſing thereby great Damages, Loſſes and Expences to the Dutcheſs and her Children. And as this Princeſs had implored the Emperor and Empire to ſuccour her againſt thoſe Outrages, his Imperial Majeſty ordered the ſaid Dukes to comply, not only with the precedent Decrees, but alſo if, contrary to all Expectation, they had not yet obeyed them, to indemnify the ſaid Dutcheſs for all Charges and Damages ſhe had ſuffered, or to expect without fail Military Execution. To render this Decree more efficacious, his Imperial Majeſty addreſſed the ſame Day a Reſcript to the Princes Directors of the Circles of Franconia and Saxony, informing them, that, though his Imperial Majeſty doubted not their having executed his Decree of the 25th of February, yet if, contrary to all Expectation, there ſhould be any Thing unexecuted, they are to proceed without Delay to the Execution of it, by protecting the Dutcheſs Dowager, her Children, and Subjects, againſt the ſaid Dukes, and to entirely re-eſtabliſh Tranquillity and Peace. The ſaid Dukes are cited by the ſame Decree to appear before the Tribunal in Two Months, in order to examine whether they are guilty of the Infraction of the Publick Peace, and liable to pay the Fine of 2000 Marks of pure Gold. And as the Dutcheſs Dowager, by the Report made to his Imperial Majeſty the 12th of this Month, had made a Declaration, conformable in all Points to the Imperial Decree of the 25th of February, his Imperial Majeſty orders this Declaration to be communicated to the ſaid Dukes for their Information, and declares, at the ſame Time, the Dutcheſs Dowager the ſole Guardian

Guardian of the Children of the late Duke Anthony Ulric born of this Princeſs, who is thereby named the only Regent of the Country, and her Mandatary admitted to take the Oath of Guardianſhip. Conſequently, the Imperial Decree, which confirms her in this Quality, is to be diſpatched by the Chancery; whilſt the Demand of the ſaid Dukes is rejected, and the Regency of Meiningen, the Provincial States, and the Subjects, are injoined to acknowledge and reſpect this Princeſs as their ſole Regent. As the Imperial Decrees, relating to the Children of the Duke of Saxe Meiningen by the firſt Marriage, are reiteratedly confirmed by this; it is alſo ordered, that the Letter, which the Prince Barnard Erneſt, eldeſt Son of this Marriage, addreſſed to his Imperial Majeſty the 14th of this Month for himſelf and his Brother, ſhall be returned by the Chancery, he having made Uſe in that Letter, of the Title, Arms, Seal, and Name of a Duke of Saxony, contrary to the Imperial Decrees, and the Avis of the Empire in 1747. It is to be remarked, that this Prince and his Brother, ſince their deceaſed Mother was raiſed to the Dignity of Princeſs by the Emperor Charles VI, have been and are acknowledged for Princes, but not for Dukes of Saxony.

Ratiſbon, March 28. His Imperial Majeſty has named Count Seidewitz, Imperial Con-Commiſſary here, his Commiſſary for the Election of a new Biſhop of Ratiſbon; for which Prince Clement of Saxony, the Biſhop of Augſbourg, the Provoſt of Ellwang, and Count Koenig feld, are Candidates.

Yeſterday a Column of about 900 or 1000 Croats, commanded by General Kleefeld, coming from the Army of the Empire, paſſed through this City, and were reviewed before the Palace of the Prince of Tour Taxis; after which they returned to the Iſland of Unterweerth, where his Highneſs ſent them Bread, and ſeveral Barrels of Beer, Brandy, &c. and To-day they embark for Vienna.

Berlin March 29. Accounts have been received here, that his Pruſſian Majeſty's Dominions on the Lower Rhine were evacuated by the French Troops on the 13th of this Month. His Serene Highneſs Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, who has been for ſome Time paſt at Magdebourg, is expected here as this Day.

The lateſt Letters from Warſaw ſay, that the King of Poland ſtill continues indiſpoſed.

A great Number of Deſerters having formed themſelves into different Bands, under Leaders of their own chuſing, have thrown themſelves into the Woods in Saxony, and have lately committed ſeveral Robberies and Murders; ſo that Travelling in that Electorate, as well as in Thuringia, is at preſent attended with great Danger.

An Eſtafette, which arrived here Yeſterday, brings an Account, that his Pruſſian Majeſty intends to be here To-morrow Evening.

Berlin, April 2. The King of Pruſſia left Croſſen on the 30th in the Morning, and arrived at his Palace here the ſame Night by Nine of the Clock; where he was received by the Princes of the Blood, Foreign Miniſters, and Principal Nobility, &c. aſſembled for that Purpoſe.

Hague, April 8. This is the Ninth Day of the Prince of Orange's Illneſs; and his Serene Highneſs, though very full, is thus far advanced in the Small-Pox without any dangerous Symptoms.
